MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Paul Greenwood and Stephen Walsh
09-cr-722 (MGC)

Dear Judge Cedarbaum,

We represent Paul Greenwood in the above-referenced matter. Currently, the conditions of Mr. Greenwood's bail limit his travel to the Southern District of New York, the District of New Jersey, the District of Columbia, the Northern District of New York, the Western District of Pennsylvania, and direct travel between his residence in North Salem, New York and the Western District of Pennsylvania or the District of Columbia. We write to seek the Court's permission for Mr. Greenwood to travel to Hendersonville, North Carolina from February 16, 2010 through February 25, 2010 to participate in his daughter, Karen's, promotion to a new level in her program.¹ Assistant United States Attorney John O'Donnell consents to this request.

Mr. Greenwood's 13-year-old daughter, Karen, is currently attending New Leaf Academy in Hendersonville, North Carolina, a residential educational program for teenagers with emotional problems. New Leaf has asked Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood to travel to North Carolina in mid-February so they can participate in Karen's advancement to a higher level in her program. This is a significant step in her treatment.

In accordance with past practice, should his present request be granted, Mr. Greenwood will provide his probation officer, Mr. Scott Kowal, with the full details of his itinerary before he departs.

Respectfully submitted,
